Job Opportunity #1 -

Job ID: 23398

Senior Strategic Planning Analyst

Department: Academic Planning Budget

Location: UCLA

Under the general direction of the Director of Program Analysis in APB, the Strategic Planning Analyst is part of an analyst team that will provide strategic support to senior campus decision-makers on issues relating to the campus planning and budgeting process. Responsible for providing analysis and options to senior campus leadership which support the resource allocation decision process for selected Vice Chancellors and Deans. Accountable for campus-wide analytical studies of the application of actual or proposed budget policy; the interpretation, application and implementation of approved budget policy; and the effective use of campus resources.

For selected Schools/Colleges and Administrative Units, serve as internal consultant, advising Vice Chancellors/Deans on application of UC and UCLA budgetary policy and practice to strategic planning and budgeting processes. Review and recommend approval of campus budgets.

For selected areas of programmatic activity, review proposals for financial changes in existing academic programs, proposals for new programs, and requests for structural/hierarchical changes that may have financial implications. Make recommendations regarding financial reviews of programmatic reviews to campus leadership.
